SCHEDULE
ENTITLED
THE PUBLIC PROCUREMENT AND CONCESSIONS ACT, 2005

IT IS ENACTED by the National Transitional Legislative Assembly of the Republic of Liberia in Legislature Assembled as follows:

PART I - PRELIMINARY
OBJECTIVES OF THE LAW

THIS ACT regulates all forms of public procurement and concessions, establishes the Public Procurement and Concessions Commission, provides for institutional structures for public procurement and concessions, stipulates methods and procedures for public procurement and concessions and for purposes related thereto.

This Act is intended to:

- (a) Maximize economy and efficiency in procurement, and obtain best value for public expenditures;
- (b) Promote economic development of Liberia;
- (c) Build capacity of officials and institutions in public procurement;
- (d) Promote competition and foster participation in procurement proceedings and concession agreements by qualified suppliers, contractors and consultants;
- (e) Provide equal access without discrimination to all eligible and qualified providers of goods, works and services and fair and equitable treatment of all bidders;
- (f) Promote integrity, fairness, accountability and public confidence in the procurement process;

- (g) Achieve transparency in the procedures, processes and decisions relating to procurement and concession agreements;
- (h) Decentralize public procurement to procuring entities;
- (i) Promote the growth of indigenous Liberian Private sector;
- (j) Harness private sector financial, human and technical resources through concession agreements; and
- (k) Eradicate monopolies and promote competitiveness in the concession procurement process.

Scope and Application

1. (1) This Act shall apply to the procurement of goods, works and services, financed in whole or in part from public funds including the disposal of government stores, plant and equipment and all concessions as defined under this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of sub-section (1) of this section, the Act shall apply to:

- (a) All executive agencies including Government ministries, commissions, bureaus, departments and agencies;
- (b) The Judiciary and the Legislature;
- (c) Subsidized - agencies;
- (d) Independent bodies and commissions set up by the State;
- (e) All public enterprises which are wholly owned by the State or in which the State has majority interest;
- (f) Counties, districts and local authorities;
- (g) Public universities, public schools, colleges and hospitals;
- (h) Financial institutions, public trusts, pension funds, insurance companies, building societies and similar institutions which are wholly owned by the State or in which the State has majority interest;
- (i) National security institutions subject to the provisions of sub-sections 3 (c), 5 and 6 of this Section;
- (j) Any private sector entity vested with the responsibility for the execution of activities using public funds;
- (k) Concession Entities as defined under Part VI of this Act;

Non-application

- (3) This Act shall however not apply to:
- (a) International agreements concluded between the Government of Liberia and other countries or international organizations for general or specific projects where these agreements provide for specified procurement rules and procedures.
 - (b) Agreements executed by the Central Bank of Liberia relating to the implementation of monetary policy or procurement related to the production of coins or currency.
 - (c) Procurement of military or national security equipment subject to sub-section 5 of this Section.

Conditions Applicable To Exemptions

(4) The government agency responsible for the execution of the agreements stated in sub-section 3 (a) and (b) of this section on behalf of the Republic of Liberia shall inform the head of the relevant entity of the provisions of such agreements.

- (5) The following rules shall apply to sub-section 3(c):
- (a) Where the Minister responsible for Defense, or the head of any national security agency with the prior approval of Cabinet or the entity charged with the oversight responsibility for defense or national security, determines that any procurement related to national defense or national security requires the application of special procedures, the procedures set out in this Act may be modified by the Commission for the specific purpose, but the modification shall be governed strictly by considerations relating to defense or security.
 - (b) For the purpose of subsection 3(c), procurement of items such as general stores, uniforms, stationery, office equipment and ordinary vehicles for the military or security agencies shall not be classified as related to national defense or national security procurement.
 - (c) The Commission may, in consultation with Cabinet or the entity charged with the responsibility for defense or national security, make further procedures relating to military and national security procurement.

21. (1) Any entity to which this Act applies shall be a Procuring Entity or Concessions Entity as the context may require under this Act.

(2) Every Procurement or Concessions Entity shall be responsible for procurement or concessions carried out by the Entity.

(3) In the performance of its functions under this Act, the Entity shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and to such other conditions as may be laid down in regulations and administrative instructions issued by the Commission in accordance with this Act.

(4) The head of the Entity and/or any person to whom responsibility is delegated in accordance with this Act shall be held responsible and accountable for any action taken in pursuit of his/her responsibilities.

Decisions of the Entity and Responsibility

22. (1) The decisions of any entity in respect of its function under this Act shall be taken in a corporate manner and any internal units concerned shall contribute to the decision making process.

(2) The head of an Entity shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Act and shall not be absolved from accountability or responsibility because he/she delegated such functions.

Declaration of Procuring Entity

23. In addition to the scope of entities covered by Section 1 of this Act, the Commission may, in consultation with the appropriate authority of the Legislature, by notice in the Gazette, declare any entity to be a Procuring Entity.

Use of Private Sector Practices by Entities

24. (1) Subject to further guidelines and the approval by the Commission, a Procuring Entity but not a Concession Entity, may undertake procurement in accordance with established private sector or commercial practices if all the following are present:

- (a) The Procuring Entity is legally and financially autonomous and operates under commercial law;
 - (b) The proposed procurement method will ensure value for money, provide competition and transparency to the extent possible;
 - (c) It has received the written approval of the Commission.
- (2) The Commission may make regulations to guide this section.

Non-Application of Section 24 to Concessions

25. The provisions of Section 24 shall apply to procurement only and shall not under any circumstance apply to concessions.

Sub-Part 2 - Procurement Structures

Procurement Committees

26. (1) A Procurement Committee is hereby established in every entity to which this Act applies.

(2) The Procurement Committee shall upon the coming into force of this Act consist of at least five (5) persons constituted by the head of the entity as follows:

- (a) The head of the Procuring Entity, as Chairperson
- (b) Two other senior officials of the entity, one of whom shall be the head of finance of the entity
- (c) A representative of the concerned end-user department who shall be a rotating member
- (d) Any member co-opted for the purpose

(3) The Head of the Procurement Unit spelt out in Section 29 shall also be a non-member secretary to the committee.

(4) The Head of the Entity shall ensure that the Procurement Committee holds its first meeting within thirty (30) days after the coming into force of this Act.

(5) The Procurement Committee may co-opt non-members for its meetings.

Functions of the Procurement Committee

27. The Procurement Committee shall:

- (a) Review procurement plans in order to ensure that they support the objectives and operations of the entity and comply with the national budget process;
- (b) Review the schedules and specifications for procurement and also ensure that the procurement procedures to be followed are in strict conformity with the provisions of the Act, its operating regulations and guidelines;
- (c) Oversee all the procurement functions of the Procuring Entity.
- (d) Ensure compliance with this Act and its operating guidelines by the Procuring Entity.
- (e) Review the activities of each step of the procurement cycle leading to the selection of the lowest responsive evaluated bid by the Procuring Entity;
- (f) Give approval to the Bid Evaluation Panel or otherwise to enable the Procuring Entity or Procurement Unit to continue with the procurement process;
- (g) Provide the Commission with reports as required, including quarterly reports;
- (h) Confirm the range of acceptable cost of items to be procured in line with the available funds and approved budget;
- (i) Facilitate contract administration and ensure compliance with all reporting requirements under this Act;
- (j) Ensure that stores and assets are disposed of in compliance with the provisions of this Act.
- (k) A Procurement Committee may engage the services of such consultants and advisers, or co-opt persons with specialized expertise as may be required for the proper and efficient discharge of its functions.

Meetings of Procurement Committees

28. (1) The Procurement Committees shall meet as and when required to review a bid or perform related functions but shall in any event meet at least once every quarter.

(2) A notice in respect of its quarterly meetings shall be given at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting.

(3) The quorum of a meeting of the Procurement Committee shall be at least four (4), comprising the chairperson or the acting head of the entity who shall act as chairperson and at least three (3) other persons.

Procurement Unit

29. (1) A Procurement Unit is hereby established in each Procuring Entity under this Act.

(2) The Procurement Unit shall be staffed with persons trained and knowledgeable in procurement and charged with carrying out, on an ongoing basis, functions related to procurement.

(3) The head of the Procuring Entity shall determine the composition of the Procurement Unit but every Procurement Unit shall consist of not less than two (2) officials charged with the responsibility of budgeting, expenditure, and the administration of public procurement for the entity.

(4) The Head of the Procuring Entity shall ensure that the Procurement Unit is provided with adequate resources.

(5) The functions of a Procurement Unit shall include:-

- (a) Planning of procurement
- (b) Preparation of invitations to bid and of bidding documents
- (c) Publication and distribution of invitations to bid
- (d) Receiving and safeguarding of bids
- (e) Conducting bid opening procedures in accordance with Sub-Section 5 of Section 61 of this Act
- (f) Performance of secretarial services for the respective procurement committees

- (g) Administering the implementation and monitoring of contracts
- (h) Assessment of the quality of the procured goods, works and services
- (i) Sourcing and profiling of all suppliers, contractors and consultants, and the maintenance of a database for that purpose
- (j) Such other functions as may be conferred by any other enactment

(6) Appointment of staff to the Procurement Unit may be made subject to certification and qualification requirements that shall be instituted by the Commission with advice from the Civil Service Agency.

(7) The Procurement Unit shall operate under the supervision of the Procurement Committee.

Bid Evaluation Panel

30. (1) Each Procurement Committee shall constitute a Bid Evaluation Panel with the required expertise as and when required

(2) The Bid Evaluation Panel shall be responsible for the evaluation of bids in accordance with the predetermined and published evaluation criteria as outlined to bidders in the bid documents in accordance with this Act and shall prepare and submit an evaluation report for the consideration of the Procurement Committee.

(3) The Commission may make rules to regulate the composition and activities of the Bid Evaluation Panel.

Time For Entering Into Contracts

31. Except in the case of emergency and with the prior approval of the Commission, no entity shall enter into a procurement contract above a threshold specified by the Commission unless a minimum of fourteen (14) days have lapsed since the notification to award a contract was sent to the Commission.

PART IV - GENERAL PROVISIONS ON PROCUREMENT PROCEEDINGS

Qualification of Bidders

32. (1) In order to participate in procurement proceedings, a bidder must qualify by meeting the criteria set by the Procuring Entity, which may include:

- (a) Professional and technical qualifications;
- (b) Equipment availability, where applicable;
- (c) Past performance;
- (d) After sales service, where applicable;
- (e) Spare parts availability;
- (f) Legal capacity;
- (g) Financial resources and condition;
- (h) Assessment by the internal revenue authority to ascertain payment of taxes; and
- (j) Payment of social security contributions, where applicable.

(2) The qualification criteria set under subsection (1) shall be applied by examining, through investigation and collaboration with other relevant agencies, whether or not the bidder meets the qualification criteria and not by using a point system for comparing the relative level of qualifications of participating bidders.

(3) The Procuring Entity shall be entitled to demand from potential bidders and applicants for prequalification documentation reflecting their qualification data.

Disqualification for Inaccurate Information

(4) A Procuring Entity shall disqualify a bidder if it finds at any time that the information submitted concerning the qualifications of the bidder was materially inaccurate or materially incomplete.

Prequalification

(5) Any requirement established pursuant to this section shall be set forth in the prequalification documents, if any, and in the bidding documents, and shall apply equally to all bidders without discrimination; and only these criteria stated in such documents shall be applied.

(6) When prequalification proceedings are held, the Procuring Entity shall -

- (a) Provide to all bidders responding to the invitation to prequalify, prequalification documents which shall provide bidders with the information required to enable them prepare and submit their applications for prequalification;
- (b) Make available to each applicant the results of the assessment of the prequalification and all applicants that meet the minimum criteria for prequalification shall be invited to bid.
- (c) Allow bidders adequate time to purchase, prepare and submit prequalification documents. The period so allowed shall not be less than the period allowed for bidders to submit bids under National Competitive Bidding and International Competitive Bidding respectively.

(7) All applicants who meet the minimum criteria for prequalification shall be invited to bid.

(8) Where prequalification proceedings are not conducted, post-qualification, in which the Procuring Entity verifies the qualifications of the bidder selected for award against the criteria stated in the bid documents, shall be used.

Clarification and Modification of Bidding and Prequalification Documents

33. (1) The Procuring Entity shall respond within three (3) working days to any request by a bidder for clarification of the bidding documents, or the prequalification documents, submitted to the Procuring Entity within the time specified in the bidding documents or in the prequalification documents.

(2) Responses to requests for clarification and responses from a pre-bid conference as well as any modification or any other clarifications of the bidding documents or of the prequalification documents shall be communicated to all bidders participating in the procurement proceedings without delay, so as to allow bidders an opportunity to take the clarifications or modifications into account in preparing their submissions and if necessary to allow bidders to do so, the Procuring Entity shall extend the deadline for submission of bids or applications to prequalify.

Description of Goods, Works and Services

34. (1) To the extent possible, any specifications, plans, drawings, designs and requirements or descriptions of goods, works or services shall be based on the relevant objective technical and quality characteristics, and performance of the goods, works or services to be procured; but there shall be no requirement for or reference to a particular brand, trademark, name, patent, design, type, specific origin or producer unless there is no other sufficiently precise or intelligible way of describing the characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procured and provided that words such as “or equivalent” are included.

(2) Any descriptions of the technical or quality characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procured, and requirements as to testing, packaging, marking, labeling, or conformity certification, or symbols and terminology, that are irrelevant to the performance of the goods or create unjustified obstacles to participation by qualified bidders, and unnecessarily and without justification limit competition, shall not be included or used in the prequalification documents, or bidding documents.

(3) The Procuring Entity shall where applicable prepare descriptions of procurement requirements in conformity with the applicable environmental protection legislation and Regulations as well as international conventions and standards.

Deadline for Bids and Other Applications

35. The Procuring Entity shall set the deadline for submission of bids, applications for prequalification and expressions of interest so as to allow sufficient time for their preparation and submission, with a view to maximizing competition, in accordance with the minimum periods set in sections 50 and 51.

Cancellation of Proceedings for Rejection of Bids

36. (1) A bid may be rejected only in accordance with this Act and regulations made thereunder.

(2) A Procuring Entity may -

- (a) Reject all bids at any time prior to the acceptance of a bid;
- (b) Cancel the procurement proceedings where -

- (i) The procurement need has ceased to exist or changed significantly;
- (ii) Insufficient funding is available for the procurement;
- (iii) There is a significant change in the required technical details, bidding conditions, conditions of contract or other details, such that the recommencement of proceedings is necessary;
- (iv) Insufficient, or no responsive bids are received;
- (v) There is evidence of corruption, fraud, coercion or collusion among bidders; or
- (vi) Cancellation is deemed to be in the interest of national security.

(3) Before rejecting all bids or canceling any procurement proceedings, the Procurement Unit shall prepare a written request for approval of the cancellation for submission to the Procurement Committee, which shall clearly state -

- (a) Detailed reasons for recommending cancellation;
- (b) The status of the procurement proceedings, including in particular, whether bids have already been opened under bidding methods; and
- (c) Whether new procurement proceedings are recommended and, if so, the modifications recommended.

(4) The reason for rejecting all bids, and for canceling the procurement proceedings, shall be noted in the record of the procurement proceedings, and promptly communicated to the bidders.

(5) A Procuring Entity shall not be liable to a bidder by reason only of rejection of all bids or cancellation of procurement proceedings under subsection (2).

(6) If a decision to cancel the procurement proceedings is taken before the deadline for submission of bids, any bid received shall be returned unopened to the bidder.

(7) In the event of cancellation or the rejection of all bids in accordance with subsection (2) of this section, the procurement shall not be re-bid to the same specifications and contract conditions unless the cancellation of the initial proceeding is for budgetary or other reasons unrelated to the specifications and contract conditions, but if the procurement is to be repeated, the reasons for the cancellation of the initial proceeding shall be examined and the technical specifications or contract conditions, or both may be suitably modified prior to re-bidding.

Public Notice of Contract Awards

37. The Procuring Entity shall promptly publish in the Procurement Bulletin, Gazette and any newspaper of wide national circulation notice of each contract award in which the price of the contract exceeds the threshold set in the Schedule, indicating the contract price and the name and address of the successful bidder.

Debriefing Of Unsuccessful Bidders

38. The Procuring Entity shall upon the request of any unsuccessful bidder, inform the bidder of the reasons for which the bid was unsuccessful.

Form of Communications

39. (1) Subject to this Act, documents, notifications, decisions and other communication referred to in this Act to be submitted by the Procuring Entity to a bidder or by a bidder to the Procuring Entity, shall be in writing.

(2) The Commission may authorize Procuring Entities to use other forms of communication, including electronic communication for publication of invitations to bid, transmission of bidding documents, submission of bids, conclusion of contracts, and payments but any such other means of communication shall be such as can preserve a record of the content of the communication, provide an adequate level of security, and does not unduly restrict bidders' access to the procurement proceedings, and that other requirements in this Act and regulations, and other applicable legislation are met.

Procurement Planning

40. (1) All Procuring Entities shall undertake procurement planning, with a view to achieving maximum value for public expenditure and the other objects of this Act.

(2) The procurement plan to support the Procuring Entity's approved program and budget shall indicate -

- (a) Contract packages
- (b) Estimated cost of each package
- (c) The procurement method

(d) Processing steps and time schedules

(3) A Procuring Entity shall not divide a procurement order into parts or lower the value of a procurement order to avoid the application of the procedures for public procurement prescribed in this Act.

(4) The Procurement Unit shall, where necessary and on a quarterly basis, review and update their procurement plans and notify any modifications to the head of the entity and ministry responsible for Finance.

Contract Administration

41. The Procuring Entity shall be responsible for the administration and monitoring of contracts entered into by the Entity.

Price Adjustment

42. (1) Price adjustment is not permitted unless provided for in the procurement contract to take into account changes in economic circumstances.

(2) If the procurement contract provides for the possibility of price adjustment, it shall stipulate the conditions, such as increases or decreases in the cost of materials, labor, transportation and energy, in which price adjustment would be permitted; the formulas, and indices to be referred to in order to determine whether economic conditions have altered to a significant enough degree to justify a price adjustment and to identify the amount of increase or decrease; the frequency with which price adjustments may be implemented; and procedures to be followed.

(3) The procurement contract may provide that, when the application of the price adjustment formula leads to a price modification exceeding a stipulated percentage of the initial price or a stipulated percentage of the balance of the contract, the Procuring Entity may terminate the contract.

(4) Any price variation shall be subject to approval by the respective Procurement Committee.

Records and Reports of Procurement

43. (1) The Procuring Entity shall preserve all documentation relating to the procurement proceedings in accordance with applicable rules concerning archiving of Government documentation, but at a minimum it shall be kept for a period of six (6) years following the date of final completion of the procurement contract, or from the date of rejection of all bids or cancellation of the proceeding, as the case may be.

(2) In addition to the documentation referred to in subsection (1), the Procuring Entity shall prepare and maintain a summary report of the procurement proceedings, including to the extent applicable -

- (a) A description of the object of the procurement;
- (b) A list of the participating bidders, their profile and qualifications, and the qualification criteria applied;
- (c) Bid prices;
- (d) The bid evaluation criteria;
- (e) A summary of the evaluation of bids;
- (f) Summary of any review proceedings and decisions thereon;
- (g) Requests for clarifications and responses thereto;
- (h) Statement of grounds for cancellation of procurement proceedings pursuant to Section 15;
- (i) Statement of grounds for choice of a procurement method other than open bidding or request for proposals for services;
- (j) Statement of grounds for reduction of bid preparation periods;
- (k) Information concerning rejection of bids;
- (l) Such other information as may be required by the regulations made under this Act.

(3) The portion of the record referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (g) of subsection (2) shall, on request, be made available to a person after a bid, proposal, offer or quotation has been accepted or after procurement proceedings have been terminated without resulting in a procurement contract.

(4) The portion of the record referred to in paragraphs (e), (h) and (i) of subsection (2) shall, on request, be made available to suppliers, contractors or consultants that submitted bids, proposals, offers or quotations, or applied for pre-qualification, after a bid, proposal, offer or quotation has been accepted or procurement proceedings have been terminated without resulting in a procurement contract.

- (5) The Procuring Entity shall not disclose -
- (a) Information, if its disclosure will -
 - (i) be contrary to law,

- (ii) Impede law enforcement,
 - (iii) Not be in the public interest,
 - (iv) Prejudice legitimate commercial interests of the parties, or
 - (v) Inhibit fair competition under this Act;
- (b) Information relating to the examination, evaluation and comparison of bids, proposals, offers or quotations, other than the summary referred to in subsection (2) (e) of this section.

(6) Records and documents maintained by procuring entities on procurement shall be made available for inspection by the Commission, Anti-Corruption Commission and Auditor-General upon request; and where donor funds have been utilized for the procurement, donor officials shall also have access, upon request, to procurement files for the purpose of audit and review.

Debarment of Bidders and Suppliers

44. (1) The Commission may subject to the conclusion of its investigations exclude a bidder from participation in public procurement for a minimum period of one year and a maximum period of six (6) years after -

- (a) Consultation with the affected Procuring Entity to consider all the facts of the case;
- (b) Reasonable notice to the bidder or supplier involved of the cause of the proposed actions; and
- (c) Reasonable opportunity to the bidder or supplier to respond to the proposed action.

(2) A potential bidder shall only be debarred from participation in procurement on the following grounds: -

- (a) Provision of false information supplied in the process of submitting a bid;
- (b) Collusion between the bidder and another bidder or a bidder and a public officer concerning the formulation of any part of the bidding documents or supply of information in the bid proceedings;
- (c) Connivance to interfere with the participation of competing bidders;
- (d) Misconduct relating to the submission of bids, including corruption, collusion, price fixing, a pattern of underpricing of bids, breach of confidentiality, and any other

- misconduct implied under this Act or under any part of this Act;
- (e) Non-performance of contractual obligations under a contract deemed serious enough to warrant debarment, provided that the non-performance was not due to circumstances beyond the control of the supplier;
 - (f) Conviction of a criminal offence relating to obtaining or attempting to obtain a contract or subcontract;
 - (g) Non-settlement of tax obligations after assessment by the National Revenue Authority or the evasion of tax by any means; or
 - (h) Conviction of a crime related to business or professional activities.

(3) Nothing in this section shall derogate from the powers of the Complaints, Appeals and Review Panel under Section 10 of this Act.

Margin of Preference

45. (1) A Procuring Entity may grant a Margin of Preference to Domestic Businesses or Liberian Businesses, as defined under this Act, in accordance with Regulations to be made by the Commission.

(2) The Margin of Preference shall be subject to the provisions of Sub-Section 4 of this Section and shall be reflected in the record of the procurement proceedings;

(3) The Commission shall by Regulation set or adjust the minimum benchmarks for the application of the Margin of Preference as it may deem necessary.

(4) Notwithstanding the generality of Sub-Sections (1), (2) and (3) this section, the Regulations on the Margin of Preference issued by the Commission shall include the provision that no bidder shall enjoy the Margin of Preference unless:

- (a) In the case of supply of goods, the goods are manufactured in Liberia and a minimum quantity of its inputs, specified by the regulations, in terms of material or labor or both is derived from Liberia.
- (b) In the case of procurement of works, services or consultancies, the bidder' business is a Liberian Business or a Domestic Business.

PART V - METHODS OF PROCUREMENT

Choice of Procurement

46. (1) Public procurement shall be undertaken by means of advertised open bid proceedings, to which equal access shall be provided to all eligible and qualified bidders without discrimination, subject only to the exceptions provided under this Part.

(2) It is not permitted artificially to divide procurement with the intention of avoiding the monetary thresholds established under this Act or other instruments issued for the purposes of this Act.

(3) If the Procuring Entity uses a method of procurement other than advertised open competitive bidding, it shall note in the record of the procurement proceedings the grounds for the choice of the procurement method.

(4) Where the participation of the procurement end-user or beneficiary community may result in enhancing the economy, quality or sustainability of the service to be procured, or the very objective of the project is to create employment and involvement of the beneficiary community, such end-user or community may participate in the delivery of services under procedures to be defined in the regulations.

(5) In the cases referred to in subsection (4), procurement may be carried out by force account, in which the procurement is carried out with self-supervision, utilizing the Procuring Entity's own personnel and equipment or those of another Government institution.

(6) The cases in which force account may be utilized include, separately or in combination with any activity -

- (a) That, in view of its size, nature, location or scattered locations, financing or high demobilization costs for outside suppliers, does not attract bidders, at least not at a reasonable price;

- (b) That cannot be calculated, or determined in detail in advance or both such that, if it were carried out by a private sector entity, it would have to bear a great risk;
- (c) Where the risk of unavoidable work interruptions is better borne by the Procuring Entity than by a private sector person;
- (d) Where it has been demonstrated that force account is the only practical method for constructing and maintaining works under special circumstances;
- (e) For a pilot project of a particular nature for development of a technology or work method or both that cannot yet be carried out by a supplier; and
- (f) For works that must be carried out without disrupting existing operations by the Procuring Entity's crew familiar with those operations.

(7) Where any procurement of goods, sub-contracted works or services is required to supplement the force account activity, that procurement shall be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Act.

Open Competitive Bidding

47. (1) The open bid proceedings may include a prequalification stage or the application of a post qualification procedure.

(2) The open bid may be carried out in a single stage or in two stages, but use of the two-stage method is appropriate in the circumstances outlined in subsection (3); of this section.

- (3) An open bid may be held in two stages in the following cases:-
 - (a) When it is not feasible to define fully the technical or contractual aspects of the procurement to elicit competitive bids; and
 - (b) When, because of the complex nature of the goods, works or services to be procured, the Procuring Entity wishes to consider various technical or contractual solutions, and to discuss with bidders the relative merits of those variants before deciding on the final technical or contractual specifications.

National Competitive Bidding

48. (1) In procurement proceedings in which the Procuring Entity decides that only domestic suppliers or contractors are likely to be interested in submitting bids, the Procuring Entity may employ national competitive bidding procedures.

(2) The Procuring Entity is not required to employ national competitive bidding procedures if the estimated contract amount is lower than the value threshold specified in the Schedule.

(3) The Procuring Entity may stipulate in the bidding documents that bidders must quote only in the local currency and payments shall be made wholly in the local currency.

(4) At least four (4) weeks shall be allowed for submission of bids in order to allow sufficient time for the invitation to reach candidates and to enable them to prepare and submit bids.

International Competitive Bidding

49. (1) The Procuring Entity shall employ international competitive bidding procedures when the estimated contract amount is higher than the value threshold specified in the Schedule.

(2) International competitive bidding may be used whenever open competitive bidding is used and effective competition cannot be obtained unless foreign firms are invited to bid.

(3) International competitive bidding shall be in accordance with the relevant procedures prescribed in this Act together with the following:-

- (a) The invitation to bid and bidding documents shall be in English;
- (b) The invitation to bid shall be placed in a newspaper with adequate circulation to attract foreign competition as provided in this Act;
- (c) At least six (6) weeks shall be allowed for submission of bids in order to allow sufficient time for the invitation to reach candidates and to enable them to prepare and submit the bids;

- (d) Technical specifications shall, to the extent compatible with national requirements, be based on international standards or standards widely used in international trade and in particular shall conform to the provisions of this Act;
- (e) Bidders shall be permitted to express their bids, as well as any security documents to be presented by them, in their respective domestic currencies, or in a currency widely used in international trade and stated in the bidding documents;
- (f) General and special conditions of contract shall be of a kind generally used in international trade.

Restricted Bidding

50. Subject to approval by the Procurement Committee, restricted bidding may be held in the following cases:-

- (a) When the goods, works or services are only available from a limited number of bidders;
- (b) When the time and cost of considering a large number of bids is disproportionate to the estimated value of the procurement.

Procedures for Restricted Bidding

51. (1) When restricted bidding is employed on the grounds referred to in Section 52 (a) all known suppliers capable of supplying the goods, works or services shall be invited to bid.

(2) When restricted bidding is employed on the grounds referred to in Section 52 (b) the Procuring Entity shall solicit bids from a minimum number of five (5) bidders, if possible.

(3) The procedures for bidding proceedings, as set forth in this Part shall apply to restricted bidding, except to the extent that they are modified by this section.

Request for Proposals

52. Request for proposals for services is the method to be used for the procurement of consultant services, subject only to the exceptions provided in sections 70 and 71 of this Act.

Request for Quotations

53. The request for quotations method may be used for the procurement of goods, works and services -

- (a) Where the procurement is for readily available commercially standard goods, not specially manufactured to the particular specifications of the Procuring Entity and the estimated value does not exceed the amount set in the Schedule;
- (b) When the estimated value of the procurement of small works, does not exceed the amount set in the Schedule;
- (c) When the estimated value of the procurement of services does not exceed the amount set in the Schedule.

Basic Procedures for Request for Quotation

54. (1) Quotations shall be requested for in writing from as many bidders as practicable, but from at least three (3) bidders.

(2) The request shall contain a clear statement of the requirements of the Procuring Entity as to quality, quantity, terms and time of delivery, as well as any other special requirements.

(3) Bidders shall be given adequate time to prepare and submit their quotations, but each bidder shall be permitted one quotation, which may not be altered or negotiated.

(4) A purchase order shall be placed with the bidder that provided the lowest-priced quotation meeting the delivery and other requirements of the Procuring Entity.

Sole-Source

55. (1) Public procurement by means of the sole-source procurement method is permitted only in the following circumstances -

- (a) When only one supplier has the exclusive right to manufacture the goods, carry out the works, or perform the services to be procured and no suitable alternative is available;
- (b) For additional deliveries of goods by the original supplier which are intended either as parts replacement for existing goods, services or installations, or as the extension of existing goods, services or installations where a change of supplier would compel the Procuring Entity to procure equipment or services not meeting requirements of interchangeability with already existing equipment or services;

- (c) When additional works, which were not included in the initial contract, have through unforeseeable circumstances, become necessary and the separation of the additional works or services from the initial contract would be difficult for technical or economic reasons;
- (d) In cases of extreme urgency, provided the circumstances which gave rise to the urgency were neither foreseeable by the Procuring Entity nor the result of dilatory conduct on its part;
- (e) When the services require that a particular consultant be selected due to his/her unique qualifications, or when it is indispensable to continue with the same consultant.

(2) Use of sole-source procurement on the grounds referred to in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 1 is subject to prior approval by the Procurement Committee.

Basic Procedures for Sole-Source Procurement

56. (1) When the Procuring Entity engages in sole-source procurement on the grounds referred to in subsection 57 (1) (b), (c), (d) and (e), it shall prepare a written description of its needs and any special requirements as to quality, quantity, terms and time of delivery; and shall request submission of a bid or proposal in writing or both and shall be free to negotiate with the sole bidder.

(2) Publication in the Procurement Bulletin, Gazette, a newspaper of national circulation and, when feasible on the internet, of a notice of the holding of sole-source procurement proceedings is required when the estimated value of the procurement exceeds the threshold set in the Schedule.

Invitation to Bid

57. (1) The invitation to bid, or an invitation to prequalify, shall be published in the Procurement Bulletin, Gazette, national print media of wide circulation and electronic media, when feasible, and, in the case of international competitive bidding, also in selected international media.

(2) Whenever feasible, and in accordance with the regulations, invitations to bid or to apply for prequalification shall be published on the internet and the publication of the invitation shall run at least for the period of time specified in the regulations.

(3) An international bid, in which the participation of foreign bidders is invited, shall involve publication in the English language of the invitation to submit bids, or to apply for prequalification, and the bidding and contract documents are also to be made available in the English language, shall be held in the following cases:-

- (a) When the estimated value of the procurement exceeds the threshold set in the Schedule; or
- (b) When there is no response to a national bidding proceeding.

(4) The invitation to bid or, as the case may be, the invitation to prequalify, shall include information on -

- (a) The identity and address of the Procuring Entity;
- (b) The nature and time-frame of the procurement, including the place of delivery of goods or services, and the location of any works;
- (c) The manner of obtaining and the price of the bidding documents, or, if applicable, the prequalification documents;
- (d) The place and deadline for submission of bids, or of applications to prequalify;
- (e) Such other matters as may be prescribed in the regulations and standard forms issued by the Commission.

Bidding Documents

58. (1) Unless provided otherwise under the regulations, Procuring Entities shall use the standard bidding documents published or approved by the Commission.

(2) The Procuring Entity shall provide, in an expeditious and non discriminatory manner, the bidding documents to all potential bidders that respond to the invitation to bid or, in the case of prequalification proceedings, to all bidders that have been prequalified, and the price that may be charged for the bidding documents shall reflect only the cost of printing and distributing the documents.

- (3) The bidding documents shall inform bidders of -
 - (a) The nature and time frame of the procurement, including, but not limited to the technical specifications or drawings as the case may be, terms of reference, the contractual terms of the procurement, and the manner of entry into force of the contract;
 - (b) Bidder qualification requirements if a prequalification procedure was not followed;
 - (c) Information as to site visits and pre-bid conferences;
 - (d) Instructions for preparation and submission of bids, including the deadline for submission of bids, time and place of bid opening;
 - (e) Components to be reflected in the price, the currency or currencies in which the bid price may be stated, and the currency and related exchange rate to be used for comparison of bids;
 - (f) The criteria and methodology for evaluation of bids and the selection of the successful bidder, which shall all be quantified in monetary terms or expressed in the form of pass or fail requirements, if possible, or, where not possible, by relative weights and when considering evaluation criteria, the Procuring Entity shall consider only the following:-
 - (i) The bid price, subject to any Margin of Preference applied pursuant to Section 47;
 - (ii) the cost of operating, maintaining and repairing the goods or works, the time for delivery of the goods, completion of works or provision of the services, the functional characteristics of the goods or works, the terms of payment and of guarantees in respect of the goods, works or services;
 - (iii) the effect that acceptance of a bid would have on the environment, the extent of local content, including local manufacture, labor and materials, in goods, works or services being offered by bidders, the transfer of technology and the development of managerial, scientific and operational skills;

- (g) The preference, if any, for domestic goods and contractors as outlined in regulations;
- (h) Any grouping of goods works or services into lots and packages and the manner of evaluation of the lots and packages;
- (i) Whether alternatives to the technical or contractual specifications would be considered and, if so, how those alternatives would be evaluated;
- (j) If suppliers are permitted to submit bids for only a portion of the goods, works or services to be procured, a description of the portion or portions for which bids may be submitted;
- (k) The required validity period of bids;
- (l) The amount and acceptable forms of any required bid, performance or other security;
- (m) The conditions of contract which will be entered into with the successful bidder;
- (n) Notice of conflict-of-interest restrictions and anti-fraud and corruption rules;
- (o) The manner in which bidders may obtain review of actions, omissions and decisions of the Procuring Entity; and,
- (p) Such other matters as may be required in the regulations, manuals and standard forms prescribed by the Commission.

Submission of Bids

59. (1) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, a bid shall be submitted in writing, duly signed and in a sealed envelope; and bids received after the deadline for submission of bids shall be returned unopened.

(2) Invitation for prequalification and bidding documents shall permit submission of applications to prequalify or bids by hand or mail or by courier at the option of the bidder.

(3) Subject to the policy laid down by the Commission, the bidding documents may authorize other methods of submission of bids, such as by electronic mail, as long as the confidentiality and security of bids are assured, including the prevention of the opening and reading of bids by anyone until the opening of bids at the time set in accordance with Section 61 of this Act.

(4) Bids shall remain valid for the period of time indicated in the bidding documents, but modification or withdrawal of a bid during the bid validity period is subject to forfeiture of the bid security.

(5) The validity period of a bid may be deemed extended only on the basis of the agreement of the bidder concerned and the bidder that agrees to an extension of the validity period of its bid shall also obtain a corresponding extension of the bid security, if such a security was required.

Bid Security

60. (1) The bidding documents may require bidders to submit a bid security, which shall be applied to all bidders, and which set in accordance with the regulations.

(2) Forfeiture of a bid security may be imposed only in the event of

- (a) A modification or withdrawal of a bid after the deadline for submission of bids and during its period of validity;
- (b) Refusal by a bidder to accept a correction of an arithmetical error appearing on the face of the bid;
- (c) Failure by the successful bidder to sign a contract in accordance with the terms set forth in the bidding documents; or
- (d) Failure by the successful bidder to provide a security for the performance of the contract if required to do so by the bidding documents.

Bid Opening

61. (1) Bids shall be opened at the time and place indicated in the bidding documents, and the time of bid opening shall coincide with the deadline for submission of bids, or follow immediately thereafter, allowing a minimum time interval for logistical reasons.

(2) Bidders or their representatives may attend the bid opening, where the name of the bidder, the total amount of each bid, any discounts or alternatives offered, and the presence or absence of any bid security, if required, and essential supporting documents shall be read out loud and recorded, and a copy of the record shall be made available to any bidder on request; and any documents with financial implications must be signed by the Chairperson and two other members of the bid opening committee.

(3) No decision regarding the disqualification or rejection of any bid shall be taken or announced in the bid opening session.

(4) Following opening of the bids, and until the preliminary decision on award has been notified to the successful bidder, no bidder shall make any unsolicited communication to the Procuring Entity or try in any way to influence the Procuring Entity's examination and evaluation of the bids.

Representation of Procurement Committee at Bid Opening

(5) All bids shall be opened in the presence of the Chairperson of the Procurement Committee or a member of the Procurement Committee designated by the Chairperson.

Examination, Evaluation and Comparison of Bids

62. (1) Following the opening of bids, the Procuring Entity shall first examine the bids in order to determine whether the bids are complete, signed, whether required documents to establish legal validity and required bid security have been furnished and whether bids are substantially responsive to the technical specification and contract conditions set forth in the bidding documents.

(2) Bids which are not complete, not signed, not accompanied by a bid security in the prescribed form, if one is required, or not accompanied by essential supporting documents such as business registration certificates, business licenses and tax receipts, or are substantially non-responsive to the technical specifications or contract conditions or other critical requirements in the bidding documents, shall be rejected and excluded from further evaluation and comparison.

(3) If a prequalification procedure was applied, a bid received from any entity other than the prequalified bidders shall be rejected and excluded.

(4) Bids not excluded from consideration under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, shall be evaluated in accordance with the criteria and methodology stated in the bidding documents.

(5) The Procuring Entity may seek clarification from any bidder to facilitate evaluation but shall neither ask nor permit any bidder to change the price or any other aspect of the bid and if a bidder amends its bid in any manner, such a bid shall be rejected and its bid security forfeited.

(6) If there is an arithmetical error, such an error shall be rectified and the bidder notified but if the bidder refuses to accept such correction, its bid shall be rejected and the bid security forfeited.

(7) If there is a discrepancy between figures and words, the amount in words shall prevail unless the discrepancy is due to misplacement of decimal point, in which case the mistake shall be rectified and the bidder notified.

(8) In carrying out the evaluation, if there are minor deviations in any bid which did not merit rejection at the earlier stage, such minor variation shall be costed, if possible, and the evaluated cost of such a bid shall then be compared to those of other bids to determine the lowest evaluated bid.

(9) If the process included a prequalification, the qualifications of the lowest evaluated bidder shall be verified again to take account of any change since the original prequalification.

(10) If there was no prequalification, the qualifications of the lowest responsive evaluated bidder shall be checked against the criteria specified in the bidding documents; if that bid fails, the same check shall be applied to the next ranked bid.

(11) The Procuring Entity shall prepare an evaluation report detailing the examination and evaluation of bids and identifying the recommendation for award of contract in accordance with the evaluation criteria specified in the bidding document.

Non-Disclosure of Evaluation Details

63. Information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparison of bids shall not be disclosed to bidders or to any other person not involved officially in the examination, evaluation or comparison of bids or in the decision on which bid should be accepted, except as permitted under this Act.

Prohibition of Negotiations

64. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) (b) of this section, no negotiations shall take place between the Procuring Entity and a supplier or contractor with respect to a bid submitted by the supplier.

(2) If the lowest evaluated responsive bid exceeds the budget for the contract by a substantial margin, the Procuring Entity shall investigate the causes for the excessive cost and may -

- (a) Consider requesting new bids; or
- (b) Subject to approval by the Procurement Committee and guidelines issued by Commission, negotiate a contract with the lowest evaluated bidder to try to obtain a satisfactory contract through a reduction in the scope which can be reflected in a reduction of the contract price.

Award of Procurement Contract

65. (1) The contract shall be awarded by the Procuring Entity to the bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated and most responsive bid which meets the evaluation criteria as specified in the bidding documents.

(2) Prior to the expiry of the period of bid validity, the Procuring Entity shall notify the successful bidder of the proposed award and shall specify the time within which the contract must be signed, subject to any intervening complaints filed in accordance with Part VIII of this Act.

(3) Where the value of the contract exceeds the levels set in the regulations, notice shall be given to the other bidders and the Commission specifying the name and address of the proposed successful bidder and the price of the contract, but the contract shall not be signed until at least fourteen (14) calendar days have passed following the giving of that notice.

(4) If the bidder whose bid has been accepted fails to sign a written contract, when required to do so, or fails to provide any required security for the performance of the contract within the prescribed time limit, the Procuring Entity shall accept the next ranked bidder from among the remaining bids that are in force.

Acceptance of Bid and Signature of Contract

66. (1) Where the bid documents require the bidder whose bid has been accepted to sign a written procurement contract conforming to the bid, the Procuring Entity and the bidder shall sign the procurement contract within thirty (30) days after the notice referred to in subsection 65(2) and 65 (3).

(2) The procurement contract shall come into force when the contract is signed by the bidder and by the Procuring Entity.

(3) Except as otherwise provided under this Act, a procurement contract in accordance with the terms and conditions of the accepted bid shall enter into force when the notice is dispatched to the bidder.

(4) Contracts shall be signed by the head of a Procuring Entity, but he or she may delegate signature of small contracts to the head of Procurement Unit or other senior official of the Entity.

Two-Stage Bidding

67. (1) Where a procurement is to be done by a two stage bidding, the bidding documents shall, in the first stage, call upon bidders to submit initial bids without a bid price, and may solicit initial proposals relating to the technical, quality or other characteristics of the goods, works or services, as well as to contractual terms and conditions of the proposed contract, and, where relevant, the professional and technical competence and qualifications of the bidders.

(2) The Procuring Entity may engage in discussions with any or all bidders whose proposals satisfy the conditions set forth in the bidding documents with a view to understanding the proposals or to indicate changes required to make them acceptable and to seek the bidder's willingness to make such changes; minutes of these discussions shall form part of the procurement records.

(3) At the end of the first stage, the Procuring Entity may -

- (a) Reject those bids which do not, and cannot be changed to meet the basic requirements, minimum performance, or required completion time or have any other weakness which makes the bid substantially non responsive;
- (b) Modify the technical specifications, evaluation criteria, and contract conditions, while seeking to maximize competition and articulate appropriate evaluation methodology.

(4) In the second stage, the Procuring Entity shall invite bidders whose bids have not been rejected to submit final bids with prices responsive to the revised bidding documents.

(5) A bidder, not wishing to submit a final bid, may withdraw from the bidding proceedings without forfeiting any bid security that the bidder may have been required to provide, and the final bids shall be evaluated and compared in accordance with the criteria and methodology included in the revised bidding documents.

(6) The procedures for bidding set forth in this Part shall apply to two-stage bidding proceedings, except to the extent that they are modified by this section.

Request For Consultant's Services

68. (1) For the purposes of procuring the services of a consultant, the Procuring Entity shall prepare a shortlist of three (3) to six (6) consulting firms as determined by subsections (2) and (3) of this section and to the greatest extent feasible, comprising consultants of the same category, and similar capacity and business objectives, to which it shall provide the request for proposals for services; and the short-list shall be established from among those who have the capacity to perform the required services, as demonstrated in their submissions.

(2) When the estimated value of the procurement exceeds the threshold set in the Schedule, in order to establish the shortlist, the Procuring Entity shall seek expressions of interest by publishing a notice in the Procurement Bulletin, Gazette, in national print media of wide circulation, and whenever feasible, on the internet, and where appropriate, the notice may also be published in a relevant trade publication or technical or professional journal.

(3) For assignments of a value lower than the threshold set in the Schedule, the shortlist may be established from market knowledge or other sources of information but in the case of assignments which have an estimated value above that threshold, or are particularly complex, an advertisement shall also be utilized.

(4) The request for proposals shall provide short listed bidders with the information necessary to enable them to participate in the procurement proceedings and to submit proposals that are responsive to the needs of the Procuring Entity including, in particular:

- (a) The name and address of the Procuring Entity;
- (b) The nature, time frame and location of the services to be provided, terms of reference, required tasks and outputs;
- (c) The criteria to be used in evaluating and comparing proposals, and their relative weight as compared to price;
- (d) The contractual terms of the procurement, and the manner of entry into force of the contract;
- (e) Instructions for preparation and submission of proposals, and the place and deadline for submission of proposals;
- (f) The final selection procedures to be applied;
- (g) Notice of conflict-of-interest restrictions and antifraud and corruption rules, including the grounds for potential debarment from future participation in procurement of goods, services or works that may result from the assignment under consideration; and

- (h) Such other matters as may be prescribed in the regulations and standard documents issued by the Commission.

(5) The price of a proposal shall be considered by the Procuring Entity only after completion of the technical evaluation.

Selection Based on Quality and Cost

69. (1) The selection of the successful proposal shall be based either: -
- (a) On the technical quality of the proposal, the consultant's relevant experience and the expertise of its staff, and the proposed work methodology, as well as the price of the proposal; alternatively,
 - (b) On the quality of the technical proposal submitted within a predetermined fixed budget; or
 - (c) On the basis of the best financial proposal submitted by the candidates, having obtained an acceptable technical score pre-disclosed in the request for proposals.
- (2) Detailed procedures shall be set forth in the regulations.

Selection Based On Quality

70. When the services are of an exceptionally complex nature or of a considerable impact on future projects or national economy or when they may lead to the submission of proposals which are difficult to compare, the consultant may be selected exclusively on the basis of the technical quality of his or her proposal; the use of which method should be approved by the Procurement Committee subject to the approval of the Commission.

Award of Consultancy Contract

71. (1) The contract may be negotiated with the selected consultant but negotiations may not be simultaneously held with several consultants.

(2) The Procuring Entity shall notify its proposed award to all short-listed consultants and the Commission at the same time it notifies the selected consultant, but where the value of the contract exceeds the levels set in the regulations, the contract shall not be signed until at least fourteen (14) calendar days have passed following the giving of that notice.

(3) The selected consultant shall not be permitted to substitute key staff, unless both parties agree that undue delay in the selection process makes such changes unavoidable or that such changes are critical to meet the objectives of the assignment.

(4) The key staff proposed for substitution shall have qualifications equal to or better than the key staff initially proposed.

Procurement Activity

72. Notwithstanding any procurement proceedings or activity, no Procuring Entity shall sign a procurement contract or permit a contract to come into force unless the Head of the Procuring Entity has ascertained that:

- (a) The activity has been duly budgeted for by the entity.
- (b) The budget has been properly subjected to the budget process and been duly approved.
- (c) The budget for the activity has been provided for and approved under the national budget.

PART VI - SPECIFIC PROCEDURES FOR PROCESSING CONCESSION AGREEMENTS

Sub-Part 1 - Definition and Objectives of Concession Agreements

Definition

73. (1) Concession means the grant of an interest in a public asset by Government or its agency to a private sector entity for a specified period during which the asset may be operated, managed, utilized or improved by the private sector entity who pays fees or royalties under the condition that the Government retains its overall interest in the asset and that the asset will revert to the Government or agency at a determined time. Under this Act, the term concession shall comprise of all its variants including but not limited to the following:

- (a) “Build/Refurbish/Modernize-Operate-Transfer (BOT)”: Where a private entity finances the development of infrastructure/facility/utility and operates it for a specified period after which the project is handed over to the Government/public entity free of lien or at a cost to the public entity.
- (b) “Build/Refurbish/Modernize-Transfer-Operate (BTO)”: Where the Government/public entity contracts a private entity to build or complete a facility the ownership of which is transferred to the Government/public entity on completion after which the facility is leased back to the private entity for a fixed or renewable term.

- (c) “Build/Refurbish/Modernize-Own-Operate-Transfer (BOOT)”: Where the private entity obtains a franchise for a fixed period, whether exclusive or not, to develop, operate, maintain, manage and collect user fees for a public facility over a fixed period at the end of which title to the facility reverts to the public entity/Government.
- (d) “Build/Refurbish/Modernize-Own-Operate (BOO)”: Where the Government/public entity either transfers ownership and responsibility for a public facility or contracts with a private entity to build, own and operate a new facility is subject to terms and conditions laid down by the Government/public entity for the operation of the facility.
- (e) “Joint Ventures”: Where the Government/public entity shares investment, profits, losses and/or control of the operations of a facility with the private entity.
- (f) “Management Contract/Service Contract”: Where a private entity is engaged as an agent of the Government/public entity, to perform a public function on behalf of the Government/public entity for a fee in whatever form, with or without performance incentives regardless of whether the public entity retains responsibility for the acts of the private entity agent or not.
- (g) “Outsourcing”: Where the Government/public entity contracts a private entity for the continuous provision of an otherwise public service paid for by the public entity.
- (h) “Partial Privatization”: The partial disposal of Government interest to a private entity other than through the Stock Exchange.
- (i) The Commission may identify other business arrangements that shall be defined as concessions.

- (e) Unincorporated Associations

Sub-Part 3 - The Concession Procurement Process Planning

Inclusion In Economic Development Plan

87. (1) The Minister responsible for Economic Affairs shall develop an annual concessions plan for sectors of the economy in which concessions may be promoted for approval by Cabinet.

(2) The role assigned the Minister responsible for Economic Affairs under subsection (1) of this section shall only be exercised in consultation with all Ministers and head of Entities that may be affected by the annual concessions plan.

(3) The head of a Concession Entity shall, prior to commencing any activity for the purpose of implementing a concession, request the Minister responsible for Economic Affairs to issue a Certificate for Concession for the specific concession.

No Concession without Certificate

88. (1) Every concession implementation process shall commence with the issue of a Certificate for Concession and no concession shall be implemented unless the proposed project has been issued with a Certificate for Concession.

(2) The Ministry responsible for Economic Affairs shall have the sole responsibility to issue the Certificate for Concession.

Criteria for the Issue of the Certificate for Concession

89. (1) Prior to issuing the Certificate for Concession under Section 88 of this Act, the Ministry responsible for Economic Affairs shall ensure that:

- (a) The concession falls within the area of the economy in which concession arrangements may be carried out in furtherance of national economic objectives.
- (b) The proposed concession has not already been allocated with public funds for the same purpose envisaged under the proposed project.
- (c) The barriers or bottlenecks that need to be addressed prior to or in the course of the concession procurement process have been clearly identified by the Concession

Entity or by the Ministry responsible for Economic Affairs and brought to the knowledge of the Entity.

(2) The functions of the Ministry responsible for Economic Affairs under subsection (1) of this section shall be performed with prior consultation with the head of Concessions Entities affected by specific concession.

Presentation of Concession Option to the Public

90. A Concession Entity shall pursuant to the receipt of the Certificate for Concession undertake public stakeholder consultations as part of the concession implementation process.

Information at the Stakeholder Forum

91. At the stakeholder forum, the Concession Entity shall at least provide information on the following:

- (a) The strategic importance of the Project
- (b) The extent of investment or private resources i.e. financial, human, etc. to provide the needs of the community
- (c) The technical and financial feasibility of the Project
- (d) Measures instituted and/or may be instituted to address any environmental challenges and adverse externalities for the population
- (e) Any other reason that may justify choosing the concession option

Records of the Concession Bidding Process

92. In furtherance of transparency and accountability every entity involved in any concession process shall maintain a written record of all proceedings in accordance with Section 43 of this Act.

Inspection of the Records

93. The records shall be made available for inspection by the Commission and the Auditor-General or any person(s) duly authorized by the Commission or relevant Government authority.

Specific Records to Be In Writing

94. Without limiting the generality of this part or any subsection of this part the following shall at all times be in writing:

- (a) General Notice of Investment Opportunity
- (b) Request for Expression Of Interest
- (c) Instructions to Bidders
- (d) The Request For Proposals
- (e) The Evaluation Report together with attachments
- (f) All documents related to the award of contracts
- (g) Concession Information Memoranda

Competitive Bidding

95. Concessions bidding proceedings shall be on the basis of open competitive bidding unless otherwise stipulated under this Act.

National Competitive Bidding

96. (1) An Entity shall use National Competitive Bidding where it is concluded that:

- (a) There is the availability of adequate technology in Liberia for the object of the concession.
- (b) The expected capital outlay is capable of being raised by local businesses
- (c) The concession project is not likely to be of interest to foreign investors
- (d) The concession falls within the area of the economy which is by law restricted to Liberians

(2) Where National Competitive Bidding is used only domestic firms shall be invited to participate in the particular bid.

International Competitive Bidding

97. (1) International Competitive Bidding shall be used where one or more of the following conditions may prevail:

- (a) The project requires international expertise
- (b) The project requires technology not available in Liberia

- (c) The project requires capital outlay not ordinarily available in Liberia

(2) Bidders shall be allowed not less than six (6) weeks to prepare and submit bids.

Domestic Firms to Participate In the International Competitive Bidding

98. In all instances of International Competitive Bidding, domestic businesses which meet the minimum criteria for participation shall, without restrictions, be qualified to participate either solely or in association with foreign entities.

Criteria for the Application of Margin of Preference In Concessions

99. (1) Where a concession is awarded on the basis of International Competitive Bidding, a Concession Entity may allow for Margin of Preference for Domestic and Liberian Businesses as defined under this Act and the Commission shall establish a criteria for the Margin of Preference to be applicable to concessions in that respect.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of sub-section (1) of this section, the Commission shall ensure that the criteria for the Margin of Preference applicable to concessions shall, as much as possible, be consistent with the provisions of Section 45 of this Act.

Restricted Competitive Bidding

100. Subject to the approval of the Commission, Restricted Competitive Bidding shall be employed where the Concessions Entity has pre-qualified bidders in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Act.

Sole-Source
