Job Title:	Programmer
Department-Unit-Section:	Technical Services – Management Information System Division
Reports to:	Manager – Business Systems Development
Supervises:	None
Overall Objective:	To provide top-notch IT/MIS services across the LRA in order to generate revenue by installing and implementing new and modified computer systems, networks and related operating software.
Main Responsibilities:	1. Responsible to develop/customize all LRA core business applications (ASYCUDA, SIGTAS, TAS or any future core software that may be acquired) 2. Responsible for Developing, Managing and supporting other LRA utilities software systems 3. Responsible to ensure that all applications developed are secure and available
Main Tasks:	R1: Responsible to develop/ customize all LRA core business applications 1. Develop application systems of graphical user's interfaces, web modules, application reports, and any software components needed to deliver complete and functional ASYCUDA, SIGTAS, TAS or any future core software application systems required by the LRA 2. Develop and maintain systems and software documentation in order to facilitate maintenance and upgrade activities of our core systems 3. Correct errors/ install patched in order to keep all systems functional in line with the LRA business process; R2: Responsible for Developing, managing and supporting other LRA utilities software systems 1. Develop or participate in designing and developing any other applications to support LRA business requirement 2. Assist in requirement gathering with system owners from another unit 3. Deploy test environment and conducting final acceptance tests. 4. Ensure the development of end-user procedure manuals and software system documentation

	R3. Responsible to ensure that all applications developed are secure and available 1. Providing preventive maintenance of database application systems 2. Ensure that all relevant database applications require to enhance revenue collection is available at all times
Qualifications:	BSc in Computer Science or IT Related Field of Study; Expertise with programming using JAVA, C# and .NET Core development and Object-Oriented programming is required. Knowledge of HTML, CSS, JavaScript (ReactJS, Angular8+, NodeJS and TypeScript), Relational Databases (Oracle DB/ PLSQL or MSSQL Server/ TSQL) and SOA (RESTful/JSON APIs and SOAP/XML APIs) are required. Professional Certification in Database (Oracle DB/MSSQL Server), Java or .NET is an advantage.

Interested applicants can address their cover letter to the below address and email:

Chupee W.G. Howe
Assistant Commissioner
Human Resource Division
Liberia Revenue Authority
ELWA Junction, Paynesville

Email address: hrjobs@lra.gov.lr

Deadline for Application is 5pm, April 4, 2022.